

Hilton Head Island realtors are honored

Richardson wins

James N. Richardson, Jr., 35, has been named Realtor of the Year by the Hilton Head Island Board of Realtors.

The Sea Pines Real Estate Company sales executive has been associated with that company for the past ten years. He was involved with sales for several Sea Pines development projects including Palmas Del Mar, Big Canoe, and Amelia Island Plantation, where he served as sales manager.

Richardson is a native of Thomasville, Ga. He moved with his parents, J. Norris and Lois Richardson, to Hilton Head Island in 1956 and attended Bluffton High School. He received a bachelor's degree in business at Mars Hill College, N.C., and attended graduate school at the University of South Carolina.

He was a First Lieutenant in the U.S. Army and served in Vietnam.

Richardson is a member of the First Baptist Church and currently serves as president of the Hilton Head Island Board of Realtors.
