

Old Town Bluffton Gallery Walk

Friday, November 20th

3p.m. - 8 p.m.

All shops and galleries open late

Wine and Refreshments

Artwork of over 200 artists

Society of Bluffton Artists (Boundary Street)
Featured Artist, Helen Evans, exhibit "Thru My Eyes" plus the artwork of 70 other local artists is on display.

Old Town Vintage Posters (Boundary Street)
"David Klein Travel Poster Exhibit" (American 1918 – 20 is best known for 1950's & 1960's work designing and illustrating Travel Posters for Howard Huges' Trans World Airlines(TWA).

The Filling Station (Calhoun Street)
Art Cornell, painter, photographer and poet, will be signing his books of poetry. Kathy Levey--will be doing woodcut block prints and finishing them with acrylics, Kelly Graham, local lowcountry painter, will demonstrate. David Musial, painter and sculpture of quirky slice of life images will begin the festivities a 2 pm and continue until dark.

Maye River Gallery (Calhoun Street)
Local ceramic artist Laura Silberman's collection of holiday ornaments, functional and decorative creations will be featured along with a variety of holiday gift selections from 17 other artists.

Pluff Mudd (Calhoun Street)
The gallery welcomes five new artists to the gallery: Kiln Formed Glass by Julia Smoak, Jewelry by Pegg Carvell, Sweetgrass Baskets by Michael Smalls and Daurus Niles, Paintings by Laura Cody

Preston Pottery Studio (Church Street)
Jacob Preston will be working at his craft in the old Bluffton Tabernacle on Church Street. Visitors can catch a glimpse of the artists as he creates custom sinks and decorative pieces.

Four Corners Framing and Fine Art (May River Road)
Four Corners will be featuring the Low Country Photography of Marge Agin. Marge shares her digital manipulative eye in a number of formats. She will introduce a small series of some of her more popular images, some in oversize and some on canvas. Her artistic manipulation of her photos turn them into a painterly expression of what we see each day here in our splendid environment.

